

Office of Assistant Treasurer U. S.,

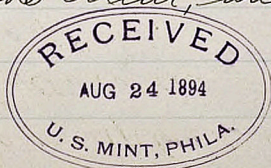

Baltimore, Md.

Aug 23, 1894

Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia, Pa.
Sir:

A gentleman of this city has applied to me for several hundred dollars in Half Eagle, of the coinage of the present year, 1894. The money is to be used at the approaching celebration of the "golden wedding" of a prominent citizen, father of a member of Congress. As we have none in this office, will you kindly inform me whether he can obtain them from the Mint, and in what way? Obliging

Respy yours
L. H. Rice,
Cashier
